AUCTION

Auction List

Welcome to the inspiring world of art, compassion, and hope. We are delighted to present this catalogue for our SRCC charity art auction, where the power of creativity converges with the mission to support survivors. This event also raises awareness for a cause close to our hearts, the recovery of individuals affected by sexual violence, here at Sligo Rape Crisis Centre.

Within these pages, you will discover a remarkable collection of paintings and drawings, each a testament to the creativity within the human spirit. They also show, by their variety, the profound impact art can have to help us understand and find beauty through visual images in ourselves and the world.

By participating in this auction, you are not only in the arena to acquire a piece of art but also in a position to contribute to a brighter future for survivors of sexual assault. Every painting and drawing sold at auction, carries the promise of support, empathy, and transformation for an individual on their own journey of recovery.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the talented artists who have generously donated their works, and to you, our patrons for viewing this programme with the intention of supporting a world free from the pain and silence that surrounds sexual violence.

Together, through the language of art and the strength of our shared community in Sligo, we unite in our pursuit of healing, justice, and change. Thank you for joining us on this important journey of hope, empowerment, and solidarity.

Please take your time to enjoy the works of art contained within these pages, and if you can, come along on Culture night Friday 22nd of September 2023. View the real things between five and six pm, then take part in the auction between six and seven with some complimentary drinks. Who knows, you may walk away with a work of art and know you have supported our much-needed service.
